- Eva Menart, EM (SI), vice-chair
- Monique Drieux, MD (FR)
- Romain Jeanneret, RJ (CH)
- Paula Menino Homem, PMH (PT), Scientific Communication Manager
- Katarzyna Schaefer-Rychel, KSR (PL)
- Razvan Gavrila, RG (RO)

Local participant Petru Negrea, PN (RO), Prof. Polytechnic University of Timisoara

Invited Expert

Ana Maria Mortu, AMM (RO), Expert Ministry of Culture, Prof. National University of Architecture Bucuresti

The objective of these three days is to bring together all the skills acquired to analyse and diagnose a representative corpus: religious metal objects from Collection of the Museum of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Timisoara. This will be an opportunity for the team members, but also invited experts, to use ENDLESS Metal analytical tools in a combined way to validate the approach followed and to specify the limits of the tools in comparison with other more conventional ones.

This workshop is based upon work from COST Innovators Grant ENDLESS Metal IG16215, supported by COST (European Cooperation in Science and Technology).

- Welcoming words by CD, Andrei Balarie, assistant manager of National Museum of Banat and Claudiu Calin PhD, curator of the collection

- Roundtable: IG16215 team members, local participant(s) and expert(s)

- Introduction to the corpus and pre-selection of artefacts (done on the previous day at 6.30 pm at the Roman Catholic Diocese Timisoara - see map and red arrow).

- Division of tasks (proposal): CD&RG: management; MiCorr (PMH & CD); DiscoveryMat (MD & KS); Pleco (EM & RJ)¹. All participants will work in the same room.

Coffee break

Razvan will have to make a list so that we know what he has and what we have to bring with us.

This workshop is based upon work from COST Innovators Grant ENDLESS Metal IG16215, supported by COST (European Cooperation in Science and Technology).

¹ The corpus for MiCorr might be larger than the one for DiscoveryMat and Pleco. DiscoveryMat can be used on copper-based alloys while Pleco can be used both on copper, silver and silver-copper alloys.

As equipment:

MiCorr: magnet, gloves, torch, digital microscope (Dinolite) or magnifier.

⁻ DiscoveryMat: polishing paper, chemicals, deionised water, reference electrode and junction tubes, syringes, crocodile clamp, aluminium foil, laboratory stand with clamps and clamp holders.

⁻ Pleco: potentiostat, laptop, chemicals, pumps.
